

Donate to AFCM

You can help enable Festival artists to stage new commissions, tour North Queensland, mentor young musicians and perform a range of exquisite concerts across nine days in Townsville's unique Winter setting. Through your donation, the Australian Festival of Chamber Music (AFCM) can continue to facilitate community participation in the arts. No matter how large or small, a donation will contribute to the Festival's long-term future and will support emerging artists. Your investment will go directly to keeping chamber music alive.

As government funding provides only a portion of our income, your contribution will secure and inspire the future of the Festival. You can help us continue to grow! Tax deductible gifts from passionate friends and supporters play an integral role in ensuring the Festival's continued delivery of a world-class programme of artists and repertoire. Your generosity, kind support and patronage allows the Festival to deliver programmes rich in diversity and quality for the benefit of the local community.

All donations of $2 or more are tax deductible and contribute directly to the AFCM.

To discuss your philanthropic intentions please contact our Philanthropy Manager, Kate Whittle on (07) 4771 4144 or email kate.whittle@afcm.com.au.
